Chapter 1 by tinyarcher101

before you start reading or writing this is a adventurer story.
and is about a dungeon and dragon concept.

Chapter 2 by Steven Litteral

Roll your character the Dungeon Master said and whats the characters name? Galloran the half-elf the player commented, and the game began...

Galloran was simply walking down the road as he did the past multiple days and then in the horizon he saw a town, he started running there as fast as possible with his sore boots, he was quite hardy although he wasn't the best at running. he aproached into town with his old worn down dagger and boots his (nearly) fresh cloth leggings and his soft cloth shirt. He barely had any pocket money only 2 silver and 7 copper pieces. He walked into the small towns tavern and instantly saw the gambling going as the 6 people around the table were very immersed in the gambling as they were shouting occasionaly with "crap's and yaa's!" As he walked over he saw a game foriegn to him a game were he saw a coin rolling around a bowl with a ring in the middle, numbers being around the middle some being in red and others in a green. One of them ushered him over and said "know how to play?"
